MESSI HATES FOOTBALL

FOOTIE FUNNIES 1 April 2019

WHAT A MESSI YOU'VE MADE

Lionel Messi, the world's greatest footballer, has sparked outrage in the football community by stating that he hates football.

The Argentina legend, who plays for Barcelona, was spotted on holiday in Blackpool. Our journalist overheard Messi having a very heated discussion with his wife about how he did not want to return to Spain to play football. "I hate the game," he was overheard saying, "It is just 22 idiots chasing a ball around a pitch. I'm sick of it."

Our reporter who overheard the conversation stated that he could not believe what he had heard. He added, "It was like I imagined it. The greatest player in the world saying they don't like football? That's like pigs not liking muck!"

Our reporter questioned Messi's wife on his statements. However, he received only a blank stare in response. Many claim she is upset with him. Others suggest that she simply didn't respond as she doesn't speak English. So many questions arise from this dramatic event. Will Messi ever play again? How will Barcelona survive? Did his wife even understand the question? How will this very MESSI situation be solved?
